Dear Sir,

At the outset, please accept our sincere gratitude from UGMEB, NMC, for enthusiastically participating in the medical camp for FAP survey and encouraging your students to participate in essay / collage competition on family adoption programme conducted by UGMEB, NMC and IAPSM recently.

We are happy to tell you that out of about 8000 entries evaluated by a jury of about 400 faculty from Community Medicine departments of different colleges and also UGMEB, NMC, the essay / collage of the student Sneha Sindhu, UG 3rd year from your college has been selected for the award of ~~First/ Second / Third Prize in essay / Collage competition.~~

Honorable Minister of Health and Family Welfare, GOI, Shree J.P. Naddaji has kindly consented to remain present in the premises of NMC for release of the books, release of the report on FAP survey and giving away prizes to the selected winners. The program is scheduled in the afternoon of 24th September, 2024.

A formal announcement will be made as soon as the program takes final shape. Events planned on that occasion are:

- Installation of the idol of Lord Dhanwantari in NMC premises;
- Release of Report of survey of medical camps conducted under FAP;
- Release of e book of essays written by students sharing their experience on family adoption program;
- Address to invited students, awardees and faculty who will be attending the function physically along with members of National Medical Commission and members of the Advisory Committee of NMC, and all colleges of the country who will join for this event virtually. The link for the same will be announced in advance.

We extend our hearty congratulations to you and invite you/ Head of the department of Community Medicine / Mentor of the student to remain present in person when your student receives the memento, cash prize, and certificate from Honorable Minister Sir on that day.

We would also like to inform you that this invitation is for one person only, hence please confirm the participation of the person attending the ceremony before 22nd September, 2024.

Awaiting to receive you in NMC premises on 24th September, 2024,

With warm regards,

Yours sincerely,

Dr. Aruna V. Vanikar,
President, UGMEB
